PRESS RELEASE

CITY NAMES NEW DIRECTOR OF PARKS, RECREATION AND PROPERTY

Following the retirement of its Director of Parks, Recreation and Property, Ross Tucker, the City is pleased to announce that Jeff Bray has been appointed to the position.

Jeff, a landscape architect, will bring a valued skill set to the City. His municipal experience includes work in the Municipality of Chatham-Kent where he currently serves as Director of Parks and Recreation and, in other parts of the Canada including Saskatoon and Halifax.

Jeff will be leaving his current position to join the City on May 3, 2021.

“We are very pleased to have Jeff join our team here in St. Thomas and we look forward to the significant experience and skill sets that he will bring ” states Mayor Joe Preston.

The Parks, Recreation and Property Department has responsibility for all of the City’s Parks and Recreation assets and programming and all of the City’s buildings including its 450 social housing units.
