

Fanshawe College Continuing Education Bursary

Eligibility Criteria

- * Canadian Citizenship; permanent resident; Protected Person, Refugee Claimant
- * Have a Social Insurance Number
- * Have low family income below the set threshold for a given family size
- * Are pursuing post-secondary studies for the FIRST time
- * Are not eligible for any other financial assistance programs for these courses
- * Classes are needed for a Fanshawe College certificate, degree or diploma or to upgrade academic skills
- * Your study period is at least 4 weeks in length, or several courses offered in a condensed format

Students studying part-time in Continuing Education with low family income may be eligible for assistance with educational costs -tuition fees and books only. Personal living costs are not eligible.

- * Not all programs/courses listed in the Continuing Education Guide, Ontario Learn website or Fanshawe College program guide or website are eligible for this bursary.
- * Eligible courses must be graded and Ministry approved.
- * Courses that are part of Professional Associations are not eligible for funding.
- * The maximum amount of bursary you may receive is $2,500 per academic year.
- * The maximum number of academic years you will be considered for funding is four.
- * Funding received through this bursary is taxable. If you receive a bursary, the College will issue you a T4A in February indicating the total amount of bursary assistance.

Approval is based on family income and family size, as established by the Ministry of Advanced Education and Skills Development for Institutional Special Bursary Programs. Funding is calculated based on the costs described below:

$$\text{Tuition Fees} + \text{Textbooks/Materials} = \text{Bursary Entitlement}$$

You must complete a new application for each new semester or course. If you are approved for bursary assistance and you do not use the assistance for the approved course(s) section numbers and start and end dates you must re-apply. Applications are processed in date order on a first come first served basis. Late or incomplete applications will not be assessed and you will not be contacted for missing information.

To guarantee a seat in a class, you must pay your fees first and submit a copy of your receipt with your application. If you are approved for the bursary, your tuition fees will be paid back to you.

Academic progress

You must pass the course (s) for which bursary funds have been issued. Students who have not successfully completed all courses are ineligible for further bursary assistance. Funding consideration for subsequent study periods may be reinstated provided that you successfully complete one semester study at your own expense.

Withdrawal, Course Cancellation & Refund Policy

The college's policies for full-time students, part-time day students and Continuing Education students apply. Please refer to <http://www.fanshawec.ca/admissions/registrars-office> and applicable campus Continuing Education guides for further information.

If bursary assistance was used to pay for your tuition fees or you were reimbursed with bursary assistance for tuition fees you paid, any refund of tuition fees resulting from course withdrawal or cancellation will be returned to the Financial Aid Office to pay down your bursary overpayment.

If you leave school or drop a course, you may be required to repay a portion of this bursary back to the college. You will be required to pay any outstanding tuition fees if you withdraw from class.

Course load

You are part-time if you are enrolled in less than 60% of a full course load. Course load at Fanshawe College is calculated based on the number of course hours per week. For example:

- If a full course load is 25 hours per week, a 60% course load is 15 hours per week
- If 15 hours of classes per week are a full course load, 7 hours of classes per week is 47% ($7 \div 15 \times 100 = 47\%$)
- If 20 hours of classes per week are a full course load, then 11 hours of classes per week is ($11 \div 20 \times 100 = 55\%$)

Ontario Student Assistance Program (OSAP)approved Programs

If you are taking between 20 - 59% of a full course load in an OSAP approved program you must apply for part time OSAP assistance. If you are taking less than 20% of a full course in an OSAP approved program you must apply for the Fanshawe College CE Bursary for Part-time Studies and Continuing Education.

Students with Permanent Disabilities: If you are a student who has a permanent disability and are studying between 40% and 59% of a full course load in an OSAP approved program you can choose to be treated as full or part-time.

If you are a student who has a permanent disability and choose to be considered part-time and are taking between 20 to 59% of a full course load you are eligible to apply for part-time OSAP assistance.

If you have extra education expenses for services and equipment resulting from a disability, you may also be eligible for an Ontario Bursary for Student with Disabilities (BSWD) if you are studying part-time in an OSAP approved program.

Non OSAP approved programs

If you are in a non OSAP approved program you may apply for the Fanshawe College CE Bursary for Continuing Education.
