Date: April 9, 2026

Event Name: Community Connect 5K

Organizing Group: Bible Baptist Church

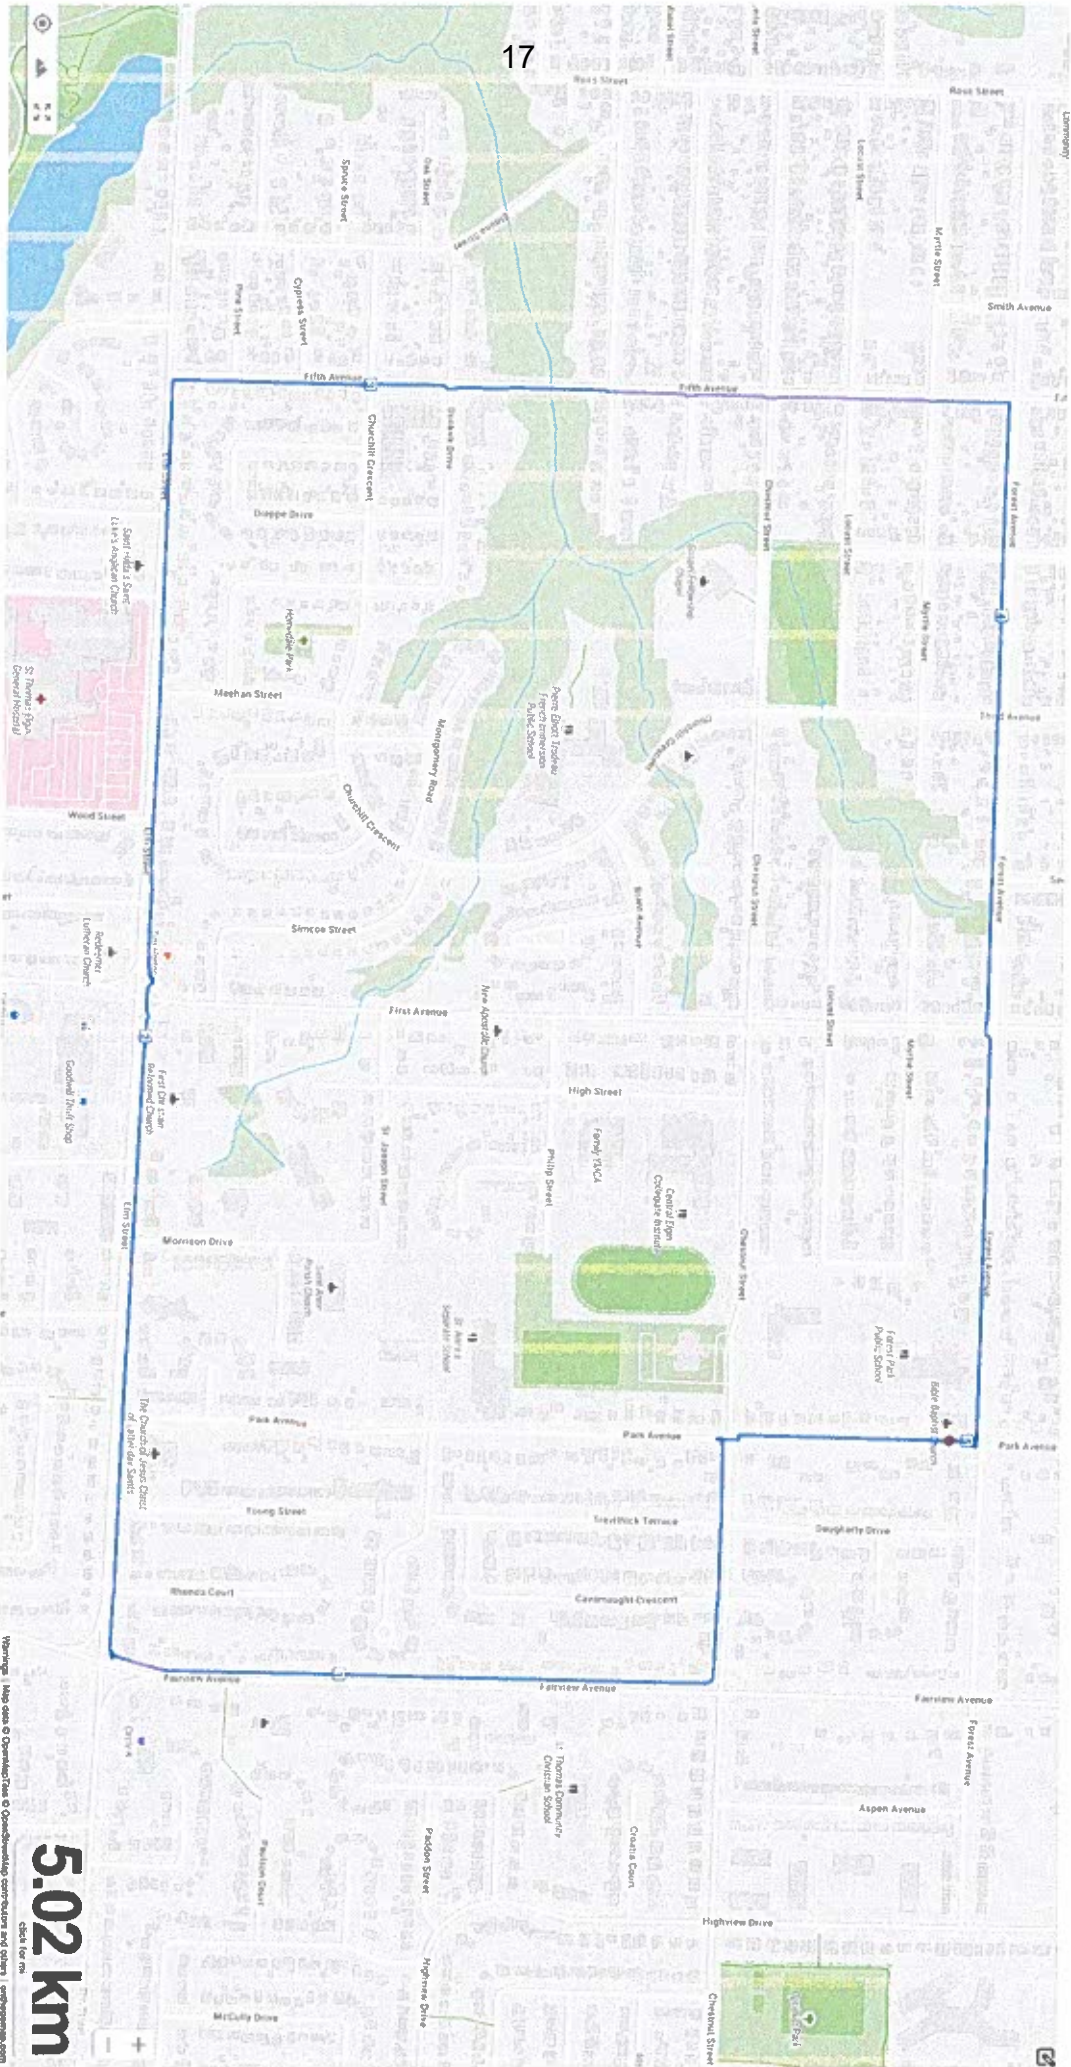

Event Dates: May 30, 2026

Event Details:

We are organizing a community 5K run/walk hosted by our church to promote health, fellowship, and community engagement. The event is open to participants of all ages and fitness levels, including walkers, and runners. The purpose of this event is to encourage physical activity, strengthen community connections, and raise money for Harvest Hands, a local organization in our town, doing amazing things for our community and surrounding areas.

Event Route:

I have attached a picture of the route that we currently have planned. Starting in the church's parking lot at 32 Park Ave, we will continue straight down on Park till we hit Chestnut, and take a left, we will run that till we take a right on Fairview Ave. We will take that down until we reach Elm Street and we will turn right on Elm. We will take that all the way down till we hit Fifth Ave, and we will turn right. We will take Fifth straight down until we turn right on Forest Ave, which we will continue straight on till we hit the church.

Westlake Evans Park Block Party – June 19

This community block party is being organized to bring residents, businesses, and visitors together for an evening of connection, celebration, and neighbourhood pride in the city core. The event will feature live musical entertainment, a collaborative community art project, local food vendors, and a licensed patio area operated through an extension of Caps Off's existing licence.

Several performers and acts have already been secured, with additional programming in progress. The event is designed to create a vibrant, welcoming atmosphere that encourages community engagement, supports local businesses, and inspires greater investment and participation in the downtown/core area.

Our goal is to create a positive, family-friendly gathering that highlights the energy and potential of our community while fostering a stronger sense of belonging among residents.
